

Fariquain Shah

Fariquain Shah personally conducts criminal cases at the highest level and is best known for his work representing clients facing the most serious of terrorism charges.

Fariquain Shah regularly appears in the Crown Court. He strongly believes in offering clients continuity of service and the firm has the ability to represent clients from the police station to the Crown Court.

Fariquain Shah speaks fluent Punjabi, Urdu and Pahan.

Notable Cases

These are just a selection of the wide range of cases Fariquain Shah has dealt with. He would be pleased to discuss his abilities and experience with you in person.

Operation Exhort	Fariquain Shah successfully represented a number of clients on this complex Very High Cost Case matter. This case involved a conspiracy to defraud. There were a large number of defendants allegedly involved in staging accidents commonly referred to as a crash for cash case.
Operation Vex	Fariquain Shah represented a number of defendants in this large scale conspiracy to defraud case. This was a MTIC fraud against HMRC with a value over £80 million. This was a very high cost case and involved a great degree of skill and understanding.
R v MA	Fariquain Shah acted as junior counsel in this high profile terrorism case. The defendant was accused of being part of the Blackburn Resistance and was the only defendant to be wholly acquitted of all charges.
R v SA	Fariquain Shah successfully represented this defendant in relation to terrorism charges.